

WEATHER FACTS.

★ WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Ohio: Slightly cooler, fair weather.

SPRINGFIELD, O., November 8, 1887.

ESOP IMPROVED

There was a city in expectation of being besieged, and a council was called accordingly to discuss the best means of fortifying it. A bricklayer gave his opinion that no material was so good as brick for the purpose. A carpenter begged leave to suggest that timber would be far preferable; upon which a carrier started up and said, "Sirs, when you have said all that can be said, there is nothing in the world like leather."

KEEP THE ENEMY OUT.

The great enemy is wet and dampness. Keep it out with a rubber coat; so shall you live long and enjoy life. If it is wet today, vote in a rubber coat.

THE WHEN,

25 and 27 West Main Street.

ARCADE GROCERY

SARATOGA CHIPS, Glace Cherries, French; Glace Apples, French; Crystallized Strawberries, French. Crystallized Cherries, French.

DEPERA BUNCH

RAISINS!

Layer Ondura Raisins, Citron, Lemon Peel, Orange Peel, French Prunes, Figs, Currants, Peeled Peaches, Unpeeled Peaches, Apricots, Blackberry, Pitted Cherries, California Almonds, Tarragon Almonds, Buckwheat Flour, Cape Cod Cranberries.

GERSEY SWEET POTATOES,

Cocoa Nuts, Spanish Onions, Malaga Grapes, Jamaica Orange, Sweet Cider, Hominy, Hominy Grits, Beans. The finest lot of Crackers in the city. The above goods are a new and fresh.

J. M. NUFFER,

REMEMBER

THAT

HARTMAN,

MORGAN &

COMPANY

ARE HANDLING THE BEST

COAL

IN THE MARKET.

OUR LACKAWANA

—AND—

SCRANTON

Is First-class. Call and See Us.

OFFICE: SOUTH LIMESTONE STREET

PHONE 135.

FOREST HOUSE,

No. 33 W. FERRESON STREET, SPRINGFIELD, OHIO.

THE ELECTIONS.

Early Advice From New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Illinois and Other States.

Good Weather All Over Ohio—Several Railroad Disasters—Petitions for Hanging the Anarchists—News From Chicago.

By the Associated Press.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 8.—Election in Ohio today is for members of the general assembly and state officers for county and township offices. There are four tickets before the people—the republican, democratic, union labor and prohibition. The weather is pleasant all over the state. In this city a heavy vote was polled early in the forenoon. Not a single arrest is reported up to 11 a. m. A woman is at the polls in one precinct of the Twenty-first ward, holding tickets for the union labor party.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 8.—The election up to 10 o'clock is proceeding quietly in Baltimore. Up to this time the colored voters who usually vote early have not gone to the polls except in small numbers. They may exercise their right later in the day.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.—The election in Pennsylvania today is for state treasurer and judge of the supreme court. The republican candidates are William B. Hart for state treasurer and Henry W. Williams for judge of the supreme court. The democratic candidates are Bernard J. McGann for state treasurer and J. Ross Thompson for supreme court judge. The prohibition candidates are Dallas C. Irish and Simon B. Chase. A heavy vote is anticipated. At this city, however, the campaign has been one of the most exciting and bitter of the past decade.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The weather is fair and cool. Being a holiday, business is entirely suspended. Crowds surround all the voting places. A tremendous vote is being polled. The interest is centered in the fight between Fellows and Nicoll, for the district attorneyship, and betting odds range from five to four on Fellows to even. Reports from throughout the state indicate a large vote.

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 8.—The day is warm and fair. A large vote is being polled. The George vote is not so large as the laborers expected. Except in one or two wards the voting has passed off very quietly. At 10 o'clock p. m. two-thirds of the vote had been cast.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 8.—The weather is fine. The vote is not quite up to the average.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Reports from most of the wards up to 10:30 indicate a very light vote being polled, although in the labor districts a respectable showing was made. Early this morning it looks as though not more than one-third of the vote will be called out. There are five tickets in the field: Regular republican, silk stocking democrat, short hair democrat, regular labor and gleason labor. The election is for county commissioner and on the adoption of the jury commission law.

A fatal shooting affair occurred about 8 o'clock this morning in front of a polling booth on Jefferson street. Patrick Hagan, a notorious thug, and James Hussey, both drunk and creating considerable disturbance about the polls, finally became involved in a quarrel. Hagan shot Hussey through the head.

THE CROW CHIEF SHOT. Word Bearer Sent to the Happy Hunting Grounds.

CROW AGENCY, Nov. 8.—The troops and Indians had a skirmish Saturday, in which Word Bearer and four of his braves, and Charles Sampson, a corporal in troop K, first cavalry, were killed. Five Mohawks of troop K, was wounded. Most of the Indians went back to camp, but a score or more took to the hills, pursued by cavalry. The body of Word Bearer, the Indian medicine man and leader of the rebels, was found in the woods. They are believed to have been killed by the soldiers. The killing of the leader has raised the ire of the Indians, and they are unable to conceal their hatred for the whites. They are vindictive in their feelings. The body of the friend of Word Bearer, said to be gathering the young bucks about him for another battle with the regulars. There were about two hours of actual fighting on Saturday.

RUMPUS WITH A RAILROAD. Akron Teams Up Disputed Nypans Tracks and Bostonians.

AKRON, O., Nov. 8.—The expected encounter between the New York, Pennsylvania & Ohio railroad gang and the city street force over the Summit street switch which the city council ordered taken up at a special meeting Friday night, did not take place. Shortly after Sunday midnight the city force appeared on the ground, pushed down to the main track the loaded Nypans cars left on the disputed switch to prevent tearing up, and quickly threw the rails. The street was then paved where the track had been and this morning shows no sign that the road had ever occupied it. A guard will be put on the railroad from relaying the track.

OHIO WHITE CAPS. Knights of Honesty in Adams County Incorporated Monday.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 8.—The secretary of state was on Monday compelled to incorporate the Knights of Honesty, of Adams county, under an opinion rendered by the attorney general that the secretary has no judicial powers. A strong protest was filed against the incorporation by reputable citizens of the county. The company is known as the "Ohio White Caps," and the incorporators assert that something of this kind is needed in the border counties to prevent horse-thieves from going across the river and thus escaping justice.

All About Joseph. NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Eight Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, during an interview with a reporter of the World, was asked if the commission expected to settle all questions at issue between Great Britain and the United States or to confine their attention to the north Atlantic fisheries. He said: "I think the chief object of the commission, but I don't think they preclude the introduction of other questions."

Accident on the Erie. NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Reports reached Jersey city late last night of an accident on the New York, Lake Erie & Western railroad at Secaucus, a few miles from Jersey City. It is stated that a bridge was given away and a train had been partially derailed and partially thrown into a chasm, leading to a loss of one life and serious injury to ten persons.

COV. OGLESBY.

Petitions for the Execution of the Anarchists.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Judge Gary, before whom the anarchists were tried, said concerning Ling and the finding of dynamite bombs in the jail:

"He is generally looked upon as the most desperate of the condemned men, and undoubtedly he intended to blow up the building and kill as many people as possible. The fact that he had armed himself with four of the deadly weapons would seem to indicate that he was determined to do as much damage as he could. I suppose this will tend to alarm the people and will create a most decided sensation. I am not worrying over my prospects. I expect to live a while yet, anyhow. Some of my lady neighbors are afraid her windows will be broken when my house is blown up. I feel sorry for her and shall try to hold down my house in order to save her windows. I hate to have my friends suffer on my account."

Sheriff Matson said that there was no doubt as to the nature of the stuff found in Ling's bomb; that part of the bill had been taken out of a couple of pipes and exploded, and that it had been found by the strongest kind of evidence. The anarchist people have their tables on the street again this morning, but there seems to be less disposition on the part of the crowd to sign the petitions than yesterday, and but few names are being secured.

"Can you tell me the expert is to whom the bomb was sent for examination?" was asked of Sheriff Matson.

"I do not think it would be policy to do so," was the reply, as he tried to brush the matter aside. The sheriff said finally: "I might as well tell you that it is known to be dynamite. Captain Schneck took one of the bombs last night and looked out the small portion of the contents. He exploded it and found it to be very powerful. An analysis is being made and I expect to receive the report of this today. When it is secured I will not hesitate to make it public."

After the sheriff disappeared the military force of Inspector Bonfield appeared. He said he was disgusted and angry, and that he was a fighting disgust which showed it was a lighted sign of his flashing eyes. "I am disgusted," he said, "at the cowardice of the men who, although they have the strength of mind, and who knock each other down in an effort to get to the front and sign petitions, through fear that their property will be lost to them in case of a hanging."

"Don't you believe that the finding of the bombs will produce a revolution in the breasts of sympathetic petitioners?" he was asked.

"I don't. It will only cause the people to sign the petition the faster. I tell you when people get scared you can expect them to do almost anything. A great many believe the police placed the bombs in Ling's cell, and this belief will make them all the more eager to sign the petition. God, I don't believe on of them will be hanged, but all will go down to the penitentiary. It's a shame that when such men are found guilty they should not be hanged. On the other hand, the republicans claim that the union labor men are making frightful inroads in the democratic vote, most of the votes of the labor party being derived from the bourgeois element."

The extreme lightness of the vote is attracting much attention. At noon, today, the total vote in the city was 4,165. A year ago at noon, it was 5,497—a falling off of 1,332. The vote at noon was 4,928 and in 1886, was 5,975. The falling off may be relieved during this afternoon by hard work.

Abell was flying around today with one of Andy Deffenbach's lively teams. He is being liberally scratched by democrats and his defeat is assured.

The hoped-for scratching of Rawlins has not materialized, and he will succeed himself by a handsome majority. At noon today the vote stood:

First, 1887, 481; Second, 496; Third, 195; Fourth, 195; Fifth, 424; Sixth, 276; Seventh, 169; Eighth, 255; Ninth, 195; Tenth, 132; Total, 4165.

Not then made. The hoped-for falling off in precinct A of the Fifth ward, is accounted for by the fact that in 1886 precinct C had not been constituted.

There is comparatively little challenging today.

BALLOTS. It is a republican day. The vote will be only average. Tom Powell paid his taxes in vain. There is republican victory in the air. The night police are all on duty today.

Abell has been rattled all day and shows it plainly. The magnificent weather means a republican victory.

F. P. Donald, extremely private citizen, hereafter.

Abell doesn't know where the voting precincts are located. Prohibits have an oyster supper at Temperance hall tonight.

Tom Maloney's Spies was glued to the Second ward polls today. At 10 o'clock the Second ward was 100 votes behind its average.

Republicans will assemble at the wigwam tonight to hear the glad news. Locally, most of the interest is centered in the fight for representative.

The democrats are confidently claiming that New York went democratic today. Charles Constantine is knocked out. He says he "don't care for Ohio, anyway."

W. I. Gillett and J. T. Ridgely wielded the quills as clerks at the Second ward today. Republican voters, it is very, very late in the day. If you haven't done so, vote at once.

Charles Constantine, of Kentucky, today, said, is cooped up in Springfield today without a vote.

Locally, most of the interest is centered in the fight for representative. The democrats are confidently claiming that New York went democratic today. Charles Constantine is knocked out. He says he "don't care for Ohio, anyway."

W. I. Gillett and J. T. Ridgely wielded the quills as clerks at the Second ward today. Republican voters, it is very, very late in the day. If you haven't done so, vote at once.

Charles Constantine, of Kentucky, today, said, is cooped up in Springfield today without a vote.

Locally, most of the interest is centered in the fight for representative. The democrats are confidently claiming that New York went democratic today. Charles Constantine is knocked out. He says he "don't care for Ohio, anyway."

W. I. Gillett and J. T. Ridgely wielded the quills as clerks at the Second ward today. Republican voters, it is very, very late in the day. If you haven't done so, vote at once.

Charles Constantine, of Kentucky, today, said, is cooped up in Springfield today without a vote.

Locally, most of the interest is centered in the fight for representative. The democrats are confidently claiming that New York went democratic today. Charles Constantine is knocked out. He says he "don't care for Ohio, anyway."

W. I. Gillett and J. T. Ridgely wielded the quills as clerks at the Second ward today. Republican voters, it is very, very late in the day. If you haven't done so, vote at once.

Charles Constantine, of Kentucky, today, said, is cooped up in Springfield today without a vote.

Locally, most of the interest is centered in the fight for representative. The democrats are confidently claiming that New York went democratic today. Charles Constantine is knocked out. He says he "don't care for Ohio, anyway."

W. I. Gillett and J. T. Ridgely wielded the quills as clerks at the Second ward today. Republican voters, it is very, very late in the day. If you haven't done so, vote at once.

Charles Constantine, of Kentucky, today, said, is cooped up in Springfield today without a vote.

Locally, most of the interest is centered in the fight for representative. The democrats are confidently claiming that New York went democratic today. Charles Constantine is knocked out. He says he "don't care for Ohio, anyway."

W. I. Gillett and J. T. Ridgely wielded the quills as clerks at the Second ward today. Republican voters, it is very, very late in the day. If you haven't done so, vote at once.

Charles Constantine, of Kentucky, today, said, is cooped up in Springfield today without a vote.

Locally, most of the interest is centered in the fight for representative. The democrats are confidently claiming that New York went democratic today. Charles Constantine is knocked out. He says he "don't care for Ohio, anyway."

W. I. Gillett and J. T. Ridgely wielded the quills as clerks at the Second ward today. Republican voters, it is very, very late in the day. If you haven't done so, vote at once.

Charles Constantine, of Kentucky, today, said, is cooped up in Springfield today without a vote.

THE BATTLE HOTLY ON.

But the Vote is the Lightest of Any Fall Election for Four Years and is Away Off.

The Vote Compared With That of 1886—Comparative Quietness of the Day—A Few Knock-Downs at the Polls.

Election day dawned delightfully cool, bright and bracing—republican weather from the jump go. The last preliminaries were concluded last night and the city went to bed much earlier than usual on the night preceding election. All the parties held final rallies last night except the democrats. The election today is proceeding very quietly and the vote will fall behind the figures of a year ago by almost one-third. The polls were manned this morning with little friction. At the Southern engine house, precinct B of the 7th ward, the democrats and union labor followers fought and elected a judge each, the republicans also getting one. Incidental to the early morning organization, Thomas L. republican, and John Hall, democrat, got into a wrangle over counting noses, and L. O. knocked his joint, debater down with a cane. There can be no general knock-out among the hot-headed members of the parties, but there was no further disturbance and no arrests.

At precinct A, Fifth ward, this morning, John Dice, a spiritualist and prohibition mosaic, attacked Wm. Arbogast and struck him a smashing blow in the mouth. This row also died early and there was no further trouble. No trouble is reported from any of the other wards, but complaint is made by democrats this morning that democratic tickets could not be had at either of the voting precincts.

The vote is so remarkably light, that it is hard to tell which party is suffering the most. Republicans see nothing to cause fear and are doing the strong, active, fully-organized work that always distinguishes them. Republicans at the voting places say that the party vote is being brought out, and that the falling off of the vote is mainly at the expense of the other parties.

The union labor people are working hard and making a brave effort. The prohibs will not reach the figure they polled a year ago, and are entirely out of the campaign. The democrats are springing that old democratic doctrine that a light vote is favorable to democrats.

In the first ward the union laborers were seen to fight liberally and to subordinate Abell instead. On the other hand, the republicans claim that the union labor men are making frightful inroads in the democratic vote, most of the votes of the labor party being derived from the bourgeois element.

The extreme lightness of the vote is attracting much attention. At noon, today, the total vote in the city was 4,165. A year ago at noon, it was 5,497—a falling off of 1,332. The vote at noon was 4,928 and in 1886, was 5,975. The falling off may be relieved during this afternoon by hard work.

Abell was flying around today with one of Andy Deffenbach's lively teams. He is being liberally scratched by democrats and his defeat is assured.

The hoped-for scratching of Rawlins has not materialized, and he will succeed himself by a handsome majority. At noon today the vote stood:

First, 1887, 481; Second, 496; Third, 195; Fourth, 195; Fifth, 424; Sixth, 276; Seventh, 169; Eighth, 255; Ninth, 195; Tenth, 132; Total, 4165.

Not then made. The hoped-for falling off in precinct A of the Fifth ward, is accounted for by the fact that in 1886 precinct C had not been constituted.

There is comparatively little challenging today.

BALLOTS. It is a republican day. The vote will be only average. Tom Powell paid his taxes in vain. There is republican victory in the air. The night police are all on duty today.

Abell has been rattled all day and shows it plainly. The magnificent weather means a republican victory.

F. P. Donald, extremely private citizen, hereafter.

Abell doesn't know where the voting precincts are located. Prohibits have an oyster supper at Temperance hall tonight.

Tom Maloney's Spies was glued to the Second ward polls today. At 10 o'clock the Second ward was 100 votes behind its average.

Republicans will assemble at the wigwam tonight to hear the glad news. Locally, most of the interest is centered in the fight for representative.

The democrats are confidently claiming that New York went democratic today. Charles Constantine is knocked out. He says he "don't care for Ohio, anyway."

W. I. Gillett and J. T. Ridgely wielded the quills as clerks at the Second ward today. Republican voters, it is very, very late in the day. If you haven't done so, vote at once.

Charles Constantine, of Kentucky, today, said, is cooped up in Springfield today without a vote.

Locally, most of the interest is centered in the fight for representative. The democrats are confidently claiming that New York went democratic today. Charles Constantine is knocked out. He says he "don't care for Ohio, anyway."

W. I. Gillett and J. T. Ridgely wielded the quills as clerks at the Second ward today. Republican voters, it is very, very late in the day. If you haven't done so, vote at once.

Charles Constantine, of Kentucky, today, said, is cooped up in Springfield today without a vote.

Locally, most of the interest is centered in the fight for representative. The democrats are confidently claiming that New York went democratic today. Charles Constantine is knocked out. He says he "don't care for Ohio, anyway."

W. I. Gillett and J. T. Ridgely wielded the quills as clerks at the Second ward today. Republican voters, it is very, very late in the day. If you haven't done so, vote at once.

Charles Constantine, of Kentucky, today, said, is cooped up in Springfield today without a vote.

Locally, most of the interest is centered in the fight for representative. The democrats are confidently claiming that New York went democratic today. Charles Constantine is knocked out. He says he "don't care for Ohio, anyway."

W. I. Gillett and J. T. Ridgely wielded the quills as clerks at the Second ward today. Republican voters, it is very, very late in the day. If you haven't done so, vote at once.

Charles Constantine, of Kentucky, today, said, is cooped up in Springfield today without a vote.

Locally, most of the interest is centered in the fight for representative. The democrats are confidently claiming that New York went democratic today. Charles Constantine is knocked out. He says he "don't care for Ohio, anyway."

W. I. Gillett and J. T. Ridgely wielded the quills as clerks at the Second ward today. Republican voters, it is very, very late in the day. If you haven't done so, vote at once.

Charles Constantine, of Kentucky, today, said, is cooped up in Springfield today without a vote.

Locally, most of the interest is centered in the fight for representative. The democrats are confidently claiming that New York went democratic today. Charles Constantine is knocked out. He says he "don't care for Ohio, anyway."

W. I. Gillett and J. T. Ridgely wielded the quills as clerks at the Second ward today. Republican voters, it is very, very late in the day. If you haven't done so, vote at once.

Charles Constantine, of Kentucky, today, said, is cooped up in Springfield today without a vote.

Locally, most of the interest is centered in the fight for representative. The democrats are confidently claiming that New York went democratic today. Charles Constantine is knocked out. He says he "don't care for Ohio, anyway."

W. I. Gillett and J. T. Ridgely wielded the quills as clerks at the Second ward today. Republican voters, it is very, very late in the day. If you haven't done so, vote at once.

Charles Constantine, of Kentucky, today, said, is cooped up in Springfield today without a vote.

Locally, most of the interest is centered in the fight for representative. The democrats are confidently claiming that New York went democratic today. Charles Constantine is knocked out. He says he "don't care for Ohio, anyway."

W. I. Gillett and J. T. Ridgely wielded the quills as clerks at the Second ward today. Republican voters, it is very, very late in the day. If you haven't done so, vote at once.

REMARKABLE CASE.

A Woman Dies After Three Months' Suffering—About the Precise Cause of Death.

Mrs. Margaret Bremer, aged seventy-five years, and a well known and highly respected resident of No. 19 Butler street, died at noon Monday, after three months of pite helplessness from paralysis.

The case is one of the most remarkable on record of three months ago Mrs. Bremer sustained a heavy stroke of paralysis which rendered her almost entirely helpless.

Her husband was a powerful ally of the disease, and at the time of the attack her death was hourly expected. Day after day passed, however, and she still lived, if her condition may be called life. The entire throat was paralyzed and food could not be swallowed. Dr. C. W. Dunlap took the case in charge. An artificial tube was introduced into the esophagus through an incision, and for three months the unfortunate woman was kept alive by liquid food poured directly into the esophagus and thence into the stomach. During the entire period there was no movement of the bowels.

The New Bushnell Residence on East High Street.

Work on General Asa S. Bushnell's new residence on East High street, has been pushed vigorously, during the season. Two stories are now up and work on the roof is in progress. The work is under the supervision of Mr. Joakim Mathison, of New York, an assistant to the architect, a young gentleman of open manners but of strong qualities. The house is of the Romanesque style, abounding in arches and gables and is built of gray and brown sandstone. It will be something entirely novel, in this part of the country, and in architectural completeness, will, we are confident, be unequalled in this city.

Among the G. A. S. Boys.

Captain A. A. Hibben, of the department staff of Indiana, G. A. S., is making a tour of Ohio in the interest of the Veteran Review, and interesting paper for old veterans, and should be liberally patronized by all comrades. The captain is an enthusiastic G. A. S. comrade, and will remain in the city until the 15th inst. He has participated in twenty-seven battles and has been in the rebel line, at Gettysburg, and at other places. He is a member of the G. A. S. of Indiana, and returned home in 1865, less than 200. Colonel A. L. Harris, of Eaton, Ohio, was their last and fifth colonel. He is a member of the G. A. S. of the county, Ohio, and is proud to say he is a Buckeye. He is also a pleasant and interesting speaker, and is always ready to respond to the call of his comrades.

HOSPITAL COMMISSIONERS. Meeting Last Night—Dedication of Furniture—Donations.

The hospital commissioners met last night with a full attendance of the board. A number of bills were allowed in the usual routine form. Miss Pierson, the superintendent, was asked to take charge of the medical staff, and responded to the committee as follows:

It was decided to request the public to donate furniture for the use of the hospital, and the medical staff to be composed of all who can spare furniture. It will be charity of the most substantial nature. Those who will make donations of this kind are requested to notify Secretary without delay.

A NOONDAY BLAZE. Mr. Nimrod Myers' Stable Almost Destroyed Today.

Just before noon today an alarm of fire was telephoned in to the Central engine house and box 17 was at once sounded. The fire was in a stable owned by Mr. Nimrod Myers, located between Main and High streets just west of Mechanics, between Central and Western streets. The alarm was sounded at 12:15, and the fire was rapidly enveloping the building, and it was with much difficulty subdued. The stable was almost destroyed, together with its contents. The loss was about $175.

Change in Business. Mr. Charles Ridgeway, of Yellow Springs, has purchased the drug store of the California Medicine company, located on the southeast corner of Limestone and Pleasant streets. Mr. B. F. Zell was the principal owner of the store. The consideration was $1,100. Mr. Ridgeway is now engaged in packing the stock of the store, and will remove it to Yellow Springs.

Funeral Notice. The funeral of Mrs. Margaret Bremer will take place Wednesday at 10 o'clock a. m. in the Methodist church, corner of Columbia and Fisher streets.

SWALLOWED HIS TEETH. Tom Maloney's Quarrel and Painful Mishap While Drinking Beer.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 8.—Thomas Maloney, 22, a laborer, living in the alley south of Sixth between Main and Sycamore, had a narrow escape from death Sunday afternoon. He was drinking beer from a bucket when his false teeth slipped down his throat. He faintly, but revived and was carried to Weber's drug store, Seventh and Main, where the fatal accident occurred. A sort of Methodist, which forced the teeth upward and dislodged them. Maloney faintly again and remains unconscious, so long that his present whereabouts are not known. He has been revived, but is still unconscious, and is being treated by a physician.

WHEELING, W. Va., Nov. 8.—While a freight train on the Pittsburg, Wheeling & Keokuk railroad was running through Wellsburg, last evening, the tracks were put in new ties, the rails spread and eight cars left the track, rolled over and crushed into the bed of the river, and crushed them to atoms. John Murphy was asleep, two children lying by his side. The chimney fell across the bed. The victims were terribly cut and internally injured.